Honorable San Francisco Superior Court Judge Lillian Sing speaks on 'To be, or Not to be'

主講人:南京大屠殺索賠聯盟的發起人三蕃市最高法院大法官郭麗蓮女士:“做還是不做”

William Shakespeare's soliloquy in Hamlet asked the perennial question To Be or Not to Be and in her speech she will try to ask the question To Do or Not to Do. Like the question in Hamlet, she will try to explore whether it is nobler to put up with slings and arrows of outrageous evils committed by Imperial Japan or to take arms against a sea of troubles by getting Japan to apologize and pay reparation. That's the consideration that makes us stretch out our resources, commitments, and dedications for as long as is necessary. How can we accomplish that?
