

WWII Essay Winners Recognized at Point Loma High School History Award Banquet

Seven Point Loma High School students of history class of Mr. Patrick McElhaney were recognized for essays they wrote about their reflection after watching the movie "Nanking" at the 7th Annual Point Loma History Awards Banquet at Bali Hai Restaurant in the evening of June 6th, 2012. The four winners were chosen from a total of 30 students. APHAFIC donated $200.00 cash award to the high school and Nancy Lo presented cash award, certificate of recognition and a book: 'Moradi, and the 1000 stitch belt', a story about a Japanese midwife wedded to a general in the Imperial-Japanese army and their three sons during WWII by Dr. C. Thomas Somma, Old Dominion University, to each of the seven students: Zhara Mossberg, Alexandra Adame, Sarah Chavez, Abel Martinez, Deigo Espinoza, Tristan Mossembekker and Natalie Smith (not present)

Nancy Lo with Mr. Patrick McElhaney, Point Loma high school history teacher, the organizer of the history awards banquet on June 6th, at Bali Hai restaurant.

Point Loma high school essay winners: Zhara Mossberg, Alexandra Adame(behind Zhara). Sarah Chavez, Abel Martinez, Deigo Espinoza, and Tristan Mossembekker (Natalie Smith not present)

Nancy Lo presented the book on 'Moradi, and the 1000 stitch belt' to essay winners:
shown are Alexandra Adame and Deigo Espinoza