

Point Loma History Awards Banquet on June 1, 2017

The Point Loma High School 12th Annual History Award Banquet was held on June 1, 2017 from 5:30 pm to 8:30 pm at Bali Hai restaurant in Shelter Island. Seven Point Loma High school students from Mr. Patrick McElhaney's history classes, Social Studies Department, won the Nanking Memorial Award provided by APHAFIC. These seven students were recognized for their reflection essays after watching the movie "Nanking". Dr. Winnie Davis represented APHAFIC to give $250 cash awards and books to the seven outstanding students. She used several quotes to state the importance of both history and learning about the history. APHAFIC has been dedicated in actively promoting historical truths related to the Nanking Massacre and issues with the Comfort Women, biological warfare and human experiments. Dr. Davis concluded her talk to congratulate all the students and parents for their achievements and wish all the students continue to create the new chapter of history.

Left to Right: Dr. Winnie David of APHAFIC, Jobeth Liwang, Andrew Johnson, Mikaela Rapp, Jacob Martinez, Jenna Mannerino, and Amanda Johnson (Brandsen Matthew not in the picture).